

Submission Requirements & Information for Publication of Digital and Printed Music

We are pleased to review your submission of music for publication. All are invited to submit their music for possible publication with Lyon & Healy Publications. Please review our criteria below. Please be aware that due to the high volume of submissions we receive, we cannot guarantee a timeframe for a response.

If you have any questions feel free to email us at: musicpublications@lyonhealy.com

Materials required for submitting examination copies of your work:

-A digital version (PDF) of your piece is required. (professional grade)

-A recording utilizing real instrumentation is required. The sound-quality does not have to be of high quality, but the intended technique and presentation of the piece should be apparent.

-A foreword/description of the piece is strongly encouraged to be included to assist the evaluators (not required)

-A curriculum vitae/résumé is required per each instance of submission. Submitter must have contact information in CV/résumé: phone, email, mailing address. *If the submission contains several pieces, then only one copy of the curriculum vitae/résumé is required.

-If your submission is accepted for publishing, the following is required:

1. A professional, high-quality PDF of the piece
2. A professional, high-quality mp3, YouTube link, SoundCloud, etc (video preferred)
3. A high-resolution photo for marketing purposes
4. An musx version of your piece (If using Sibelius, Musescore, etc, you just convert the file to musx).

Our Music Selection Committee routinely convenes the last Wednesday of each month. Examination copies submitted later than two weeks prior two when the Music Selection Committee convenes will be examined next month. [e.g. The MSC is meeting Wednesday, the 28th. Work submitted before Wednesday, the 14th will be examined on the 28th. Work submitted the 14th or later will be examined the following month.]

Thank you for your patience. We are excited and look forward to experiencing your work!
